MEMORANDUM TO ALL GENERAL COUNSELS:

When the Attorney General's Memorandum on the Public Information Section of the Administrative Procedure Act was published last month, each department and agency requisitioned from the Government Printing Office a sufficient supply to meet its own needs, and 20,000 copies were placed on sale by the Superintendent of Documents.

The sales store supply is almost exhausted, and a second printing is being ordered. Agencies which need additional copies may take advantage of the GPO price by a further requisition to the Government Printing Office which refers to Justice Department Requisition No. 189(01). Such further requisition must be submitted immediately.
